THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

50X1

- 50X1 1. [redacted] requested medical treatment for head-50X1 aches, insomnia, and chest pains, he was examined at the regimental dispensary by one of the doctors there, not a feldsher. The trip from the regimental dispensary to St. Poelten (N 48-12, E 15-38) 50X1 and the trip from St. Poelten to the CGFA hospital in Vienna were both made by train [redacted]
2. The CGFA hospital in Vienna was a two-storied building. The staff consisted of approximately 100 civilian and EW personnel, approximately 100 EM who served as aids and technicians, and about 70 commissioned personnel which included both doctors and administrative personnel. The treatment given at the hospital was excellent 50X1 and the sanitary standards very high; EW nurses kept [redacted] ward immaculate. [redacted] a patient in the neurological ward [redacted] was visited 50X1 and examined every morning by the chief of the ward, a lieutenant 50X1 colonel, and also by a senior lieutenant and a lieutenant. Three EW served as ward nurses while two EM fed the patients and acted as ward attendants. After the morning examination, patients were sent to various 50X1 sections for treatment or further examination. [redacted] sent 50X1 to the therapy room and [redacted] treated with an unknown type of electrical-shock machine, 'dersonval', which emitted electrical shocks to 50X1 chest and gave off a tarry odor.
3. The only military hospital [redacted] in the USSR was the 50X1 Turkestan Military District Hospital ('okruzhnoy gosptal') in Tashkent. [redacted] annual physical examinations there
